New Directions for Youth (NDY) is a non-profit youth development organization that provides direct services and programs to at-risk and troubled youth and families throughout the San Fernando Valley and in the greater Los Angeles area. Since its founding in 1976, NDY has provided services - free of charge - to more than 200,000 youth and families.

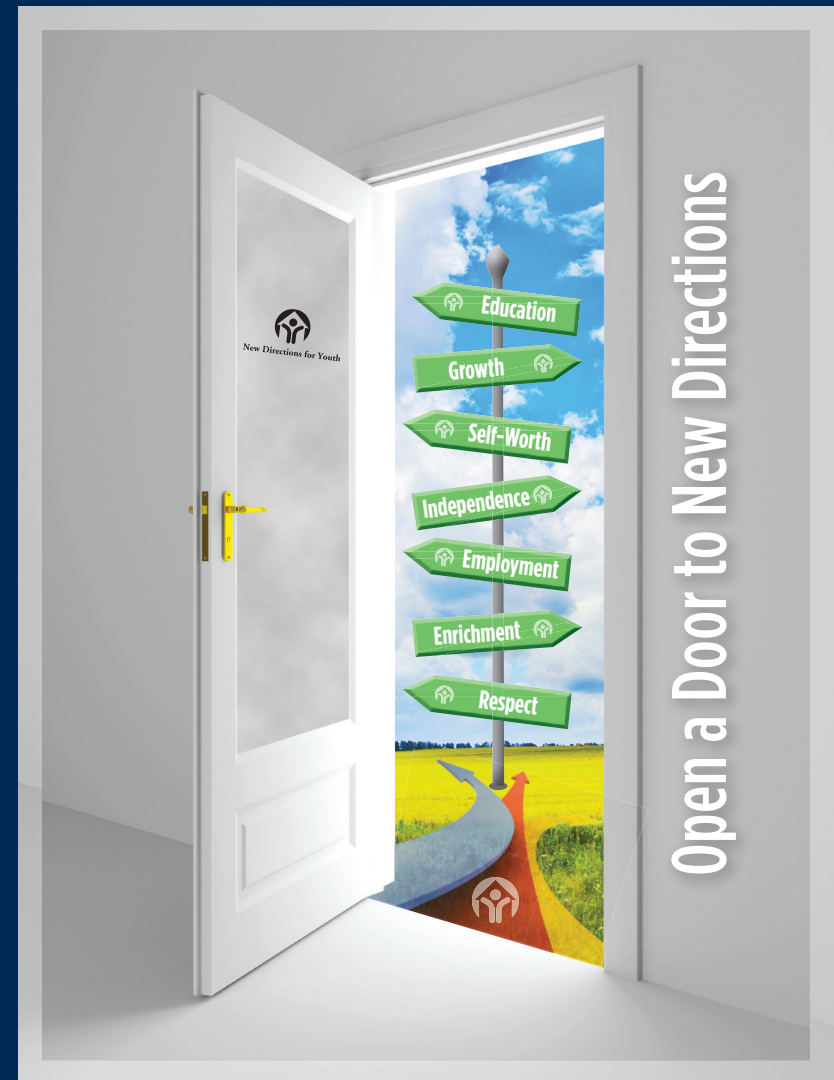

Mission

New Directions for Youth, Inc. is dedicated to providing comprehensive programs and services to at-risk youth and their families.

Vision

A peaceful community where youth and families thrive and grow.
